

STUDENT DEI COMMITTEE PRESENTS

Reproductive Health Care in U.S. Prisons and Jails: Missed Opportunities or Safety Net?

with Dr. Christine Brousseau, MD, MPH

In this presentation, Dr. Brousseau will review the medical needs of women who are incarcerated with a focus on obstetric care, contraception, and screening for sexually transmitted infections. She will address the limitations of health care within the correctional system as well as the opportunity to address health disparities in a vulnerable, underserved population of women.
